

Abec™ Licensing FAQ

Do I retain ownership of my code?

Yes.

You retain ownership of all software and other works you create using Abec™.

Can I sell software built with Abec™?

Yes. Commercial sale, licensing, and distribution of software built with Abec™ are permitted.

Can I deploy Abe™ applications without runtime royalties?

Yes.

The Abe™ Runtime is free to deploy. E-Tools does not charge runtime royalties, deployment fees, per-user fees, or per-installation fees.

Can I redistribute the Abe™ Runtime royalty-free with my application?

Yes.

Applications built with Abec™ may be distributed together with the Abe™ Runtime in accordance with the Abe™ Runtime Redistribution License.

This includes applications that incorporate the runtime through static linking or dynamic linking.

Do I need a paid license to use Abec™ commercially?

Yes.

Commercial use of the Abec™ compiler requires a valid commercial license unless otherwise authorized by E-Tools.
